A semi-detached extended six bedroomed house situated just a few minutes walk from the University of York campus, in the direction of the city centre.

This property is to be extended during early 2009. Guarantees regarding the availability at the start of July 2009 will be built into the tenancy agreement. Plans are available to view.

The rent on this house is below market level to reflect the fact work has not yet started.

There are local shops within walking distance nearby on Hull Road and Melrosegate, these include four takeaways, video hire, chemist and hairdresser.
